The department can easily facilitate finding answer in sending email to case workers where there is clear evidence in FIPPA responses that Families departments use electronic mail in some format to communicate office to office, expectation imposed toward some recipients to communicate by email with no matter or instruct to privacy concerns. Each worker can present number count from their own case files with Directors compiling and facilitating response to this needed request and so on. This is not a privacy concern where nothing above the number is being asked.	Access Denied - No Records	2022-05-02
